

Domaine de la Commaraine

Red

2020, Pommard 1er Cru, Clos de la Commaraine

 90-94

The sample was taken from all barrels, not yet racked. Concentrated dark centre with crimson purple rim. The bouquet is impressive. Rich, of course but with a sense of balance. Some floral top notes, darker plum fruit, maybe some peach too. Quite sultry. Punchy perfumed fruit, some grenadine, the balance of fruit/tannin/acidity works very well and the finish is very long. Excellent potential here but you will need to enjoy very sunny fruit aromatics.

Tasted: December 2021